This February, experience the culinary wonders of Chef Michelle Goh and Chef Pongcharn 'Top' Russell, the dynamic duo behind the one-Michelin-starred Mia Restaurant in Bangkok, Thailand. Sarawak-born Chef Michelle is the youngest female Malaysian chef to earn a Michelin star at age 29. She honed her pastry skills under Australian celebrity Chef Anna Polyviou, presenter of prime-time reality cooking shows MasterChef: Dessert Master and Family Food Fight. Hailing from a fishing family, Chef Top's foray into the kitchen began when he relocated from Phuket to the UK at age 15. Over the years, he served at esteemed restaurants such as the three-Michelin-starred Sketch Lecture Room & Library by Chef Pierre Gagnaire, a trailblazer in fusion cuisine.
