MEET... OUR CULTURAL GURU, SHUAIB IBRAHIM!

Originally from F. Magoodhoo, located in the southwest of the Maldives, Originally from Hdh. Nollhivaran, Shuaib grew up in a family of musicians. With his father being a pioneer of music on the island, he was always surrounded by music and art. My father often plays Boduberu at home and at gatherings and that is how I fell in love with traditional music. Every time I watched him play the Boduberu, I got this adrenaline rush. The feeling is hard to explain, but I am sure any Maldivian can relate to what I am saying!" shares Shuaib.

Following in his father's footsteps, a passion that ignited as a hobby quickly turned into something more. Shuaib participated in the second season of the Voice of the Maldives, where he competed against some of the top singers in the Maldives and placed in the top six. It is my biggest accomplishment so far, and I take great pride in it, said Shuaib with the biggest smile.

With tourism being a crucial part of the Maldivian economy, Shuaib started his career in the hospitality industry 11 years ago. He started as a housekeeping attendant at Anantara Dhigu where he met Javid, the legendary Cultural Guru, whom this unique position was inspired by. Javid's inspiration, paired with his love for music, Shuaib decided to embark on his journey as the Cultural Guru at Naladhu Private Island.

IN THE WORDS OF...

Serenity, privacy and lush greenery are just the beginning of what one could experience during their stay at Naladhu Private Island. But what else would make your stay on the island one to remember? Here are some insider tips from our Kuwaanus,

"There's no better place to go diving than in the Maldives. Even for first timers, it's the best place to take the first leap – or in this case, dive. The marine life here is simply stunning and it's easy to get hooked on this newly found passion. From black tip sharks (don't worry, they're friendly) to a kaleidoscope of fishes, there's so much to see on your journey to find Nemo!" – Ibrahim a.k.a. Ibbe

"Have you tried having breakfast at night? As funny as that sounds, at The Living Room, you can! We really mean it when we say you can have breakfast all day. The Living Room has a 'no menu' concept and our guests can preorder anything they feel like for the day. If you're having a hard time deciding what to have, fret not! A special menu is always there to give you a kickstart." – Eugeniia

"There's no better place to experience the ultimate privacy than in Naladhu Private Island. Surrounded by lush greenery of a natural island, it's easy to get lost in the serenity that envelopes the resort. As much as it is a great place for a private getaway for guests, it is also a beautiful environment to be working in. Not only that I am able to have a picturesque view from the office, I also have the freedom to get creative, personalizing the service for each guest based on their preference." – Majda

"Being a Kuwaanu at Naladhu Private Island is a wonderful experience for anyone who has the passion for the job. And I think this passion translates into our guests' experience as they can expect the warm smiles the moment they step off the boat. Not to carry my own basket, but as a Kuwaanu, we often go the distance to ensure our guests leave the island with amazing stories to tell from one of their most unforgettable vacations. From an Instagrammable floating breakfast to family dinner overlooking the stunning sunset (and everything in between), we are always a dial away to help craft those special moments." – Ameen

"Here at Naladhu Private island, we are like one big family, and this includes our guests. The relationship that we have with our guests is beyond just a butler – it's a bond that continues on even after they've departed. I've had guests sending me messages to ask about my daughter back home and it's really a warm feeling." – Aslam

"What are memories without some stunning photos to show off? In Naladhu and its surrounding islands, there are many spots that are great for photos or to simply enjoy the moment. In the middle of the island sits a swing that would take you back to your childhood. Hidden in a corner as you walk past house number one towards Baan Huraa, is my favourite spot to watch the sunrise. I can spend the morning sitting in the swinging chair just watching the sun come up while enjoying the calming sounds of the sea. Do you have a favourite spot on the island so far?" – Sulvaan

SPA AND WELLNESS

WELLNESS OR WELLBEING: WHAT'S THE DIFFERENCE?

While wellness and wellbeing has been the talk of town, especially since the dawn of the pandemic, one could not help but wonder: Which comes first?

Before we attempt to answer that million-dollar question, it's important to first understand the meaning behind these words. The Oxford Dictionary defines wellness as the state of being healthy, especially when you actively try to achieve this. Wellbeing, on the other hand, is defined as general health and happiness – emotionally, physically, and psychologically.

Now that we've gotten those sorted, it's pretty clear to us that both should come hand-in-hand, like butter to your bread. What matters is balance and moderation and here are three tips to start your balanced journey during your stay at Anantara Maldives:

FIND YOUR INNER PEACE

To start your wellness journey, yoga and meditation are the most effective ways to connect the body and mind as it helps to balance your inner energy, connect you to the natural world, and help you think about life. Most of us are often too busy to reflect on life and frequently use time as an excuse to avoid having a workout regime. Trust us, we're sometimes guilty of that too!

But try to take 10 from your daily routine. Practise Zen meditation for relaxation and we assure you, you'll find yourself with a calmer mind, which leads to a reduction in organ-specific anxiety and an improved immunity. All it takes is 10 minutes a day!

Simply start with basic yogic postures to improve your blood circulation. Then sit in a comfortable pose, close your eyes, practise the "Ohm" chanting, and start with breathing techniques – inhale from the nose and exhale from your mouth, organise your breath – as thoughts come into your mind, acknowledge them, and let them go. Take a few more deep breaths, and when you're ready, slowly open your eyes.

Sounds easy? It sure does.

But if you need boost of motivation to kick it off, try a private yoga session with Anish, our resident wellness and holistic practitioner, and slowly immerse yourself into the lifestyle. Baby steps goes a long way!

MELT YOUR STRESS AWAY

Stress is a major obstacle in the journey towards achieving one's wellbeing goals. We live in a world where stress is an integral part of our lives, and sometimes it can get a bit too overwhelming (whether we would admit it or not). It is extremely important for us to find a way to destress ourselves and take some timeout.

Have a hobby, read a book, bake a cake, volunteer, spend time with friends and family, travel... do something you really love for a start. Finding time for a much-needed break is easier when you're doing something you enjoy doing – like weekly visits to the spa for example.

Our personal favourite here at Balance Wellness by Anantara Spa is the Candle Sensory Awakening Massage that guarantees to melt your stress away, literally! It starts with stretching combined with the candle's circular movements to release tension from the legs, forearms, and stomach, followed by the arms, back of the legs, and back. 60 minutes later, you'll be leaving the spa feeling like you're walking on clouds.

But don't just stop there. Try penning down the things you're grateful for. If you have never thought of it, now is the time to give it a go. And while you're at it, take a minute to check in with yourself – ask yourself how you're feeling. Your thoughts count and the key to your wellbeing is you.

YOU ARE WHAT YOU EAT

As the saying goes, we are what we eat and that's exactly why we should be mindful of our daily diet (no matter how much we insist that the "D" word does not exist in our dictionary).

We're not saying it's an ultimate "NO" to fast foods and the occasional gummy bear fix. Let's admit it, a Happy Meal never fails to put a smile on our face – except for that time when you don't get that toy you're eyeing for. But it is important to find a balance in our food intake.

Remember how wellness and wellbeing work hand-in-hand? Having your favourite food may bring you happiness but consuming them excessively may harm your wellness. This is when our in-house nutritionist, Pranathi comes in to save the day (without the cape of course!). Depending on your goals, body composition analysis and medical history, she'll cook up a list of dietary recommendations.

Unhealthy diets, combined with several other factors led by modern lifestyles make our digestive systems sluggish, affecting the elimination of waste which can lead to problems such as constipation, extreme fatigue, and premature aging. When this happens, all you need is a detailed nutrition consultation to understand deeper about your body's needs.

WHY NOT?

Private Yoga Session

Yoga is an intrinsic part of the overall wellness and Ayurvedic journey. Find inspiration surrounded by breath-taking views as you practice your poses or asanas. Reap deeper, accumulative benefits each time you practice, under the expert guidance of highly qualified instructors. 60-minute session with choices of styles are available, including Hatha, Ashtanga, or Vinyasa, with a personalised twist to meet one's needs.

Candle Sensory Awakening Massage

This takes about 60 minutes and achieves optimal relaxation with a calming, gentle movement using natural bee wax mixed with a mesmerising essential fragrance. This massage will boost your passion and promote your happiness.

Nutrition and Lifestyle Consultation

A 60-minute consultation that includes a personalised nutrition and lifestyle report with diet plan and the option to add a full analysis of your body composition.

WELLNESS CONSULTANT AND HOLISTIC NUTRITIONIST

Pranathi Bollapragada

Master's in nutrition, Certified in Behavior Changing Skills Coach

Pranathi is a wellness consultant and a Holistic Nutritionist, she finds her immense pleasure and fulfilment in helping people lead healthier and happier lives. She believes in integration; hence she found a balance of integrating modern clinical approach with strong principles of ancient wisdom of Ayurveda and Holistic Nutrition, she is an advocate of diet that are balanced and nourishing rather than restrictive. Over the years she has developed a magnificent hands-on experience to cater the individual needs according to their physical, psychological factors.

With massively growing health issues that are solely due to the outcome of poor lifestyle habits and choices, studies are constantly computed to find practical ways which can be implemented to enhance the overall wellbeing of individuals.

Due to the drastic decrease in naturally grown local and organic foods, most foods are being harvested and grown by using pesticides and chemicals, which can be deadly with prolonged consumption. It also compromises the digestive track, accumulating toxins and reducing the absorption of nutrition in foods.

Every individual requires certain protein, energy, carbohydrates, fats, vitamins, and minerals. This is calculated based on one's bodily needs, activity levels, health status, occupation, and goals – known as the “Recommended Dietary Allowance” (RDA). Most times, it is challenging to meet the RDA, hence supplements are recommended to make up for the nutrients needed.

Our resident nutritionist, Pranathi, shares her insights on ways to incorporate balanced nutrition habits. Here are her recommendations:

VITAMIN C

Vitamin C is the most important vitamin one must aim to meet on daily basis. It has several important functions, including helping to protect cells and keep them healthy and supporting healthy skin, blood vessels, bones, and cartilage.

It is highly recommended to combine certain foods in order to enhance the vitamin C absorption to the body, a squeeze of lemon juice into lentil soup, bell pepper sticks with hummus extra tomatoes and bell peppers mixed into black bean chili.

The greatest food sources of vitamin C include lemon, lime, orange, tomato, kiwi and berries like strawberries and blueberries.

VITAMIN E

Vitamin E is a powerful antioxidant and is one of the best summer supplements for skin care. It has several important functions, but primarily, Vitamin E protects skin from the harmful effects of the sun. It can also help with faster recovery from sunburn, which is crucial when travelling to sunnier climates.

The body can absorb vitamin E more effectively when consumed alongside some fat, like salad dressing, avocado, cheese, or nut butter. Good sources of vitamin E include sunflower seeds, corn, soybean and nuts like peanuts, hazelnuts, and almonds.

COENZYME Q10

A substance that helps convert food into energy, Coenzyme Q10 (CoQ10) is a powerful antioxidant found in almost every cell in the body, motivating energy production and powers biochemical reactions. Antioxidants fight damaging particles in the body known as free radicals, which damage cell membranes, tamper with DNA, and even cause cell death.

A powerful antioxidant, CoQ10 protects your brain, heart and muscles and has anti-inflammatory properties. There are a few food sources that are naturally abundant in Coq10 which include organ meat, fatty fish, legumes, broccoli, oranges and peanuts.

CELL WELLBEING EPIGENETIC TEST

The nutritionist here runs through a detailed consultation and Cell Wellbeing Epigenetic Test, which allows one to witness the genetic data through a bio profiler, which provides information about your body's levels of nutrients, vitamins, minerals, essential amino acids, fatty acids, antioxidants, and contaminants. Discover which daily nutritional and environmental factors are impacting your body's cells.

HOME REMEDY

100% Edible Sugar Scrub

A long week at work calls for a weekend in, and we have just the perfect remedy for a relaxing spa-tuesday. How does a blend of fresh fruits peel and aromatic coffee in the morning shower sound? Here's a homemade concoction you can try as your morning ritual:

Mix...

- 1 cup of sugar (refine granules)
- ½ cup of coconut oil (organic if possible)
- 2 tbsp of dried fruit peels (pineapple, lemon and orange – all naturally sun-dried and finely grounded)
- 1 tbsp of grounded coffee (reused, sun-dried)

With a generous amount of sugar scrub, start from the bottom of your legs towards the upper body, gently massaging in a circular motion from right to left. If you are taking bath, soak in with the scrub on for at least 15 minutes for the maximum effect. Remember, don't use any soap when rinsing and gently towel dry to keep the glow and the lovely scent to last for the whole day.

Make this your weekly ritual and you'll feel renewed with softer looking skin as it affectively removes dead skin cells.

TIP!

Brushing your body with a dry body brush before jumping into the shower helps remove toxins from your body. To enhance the result of the scrub, try this before applying the sugar scrub to your body.

TURTLE TALES

The Maldivian archipelago is home to five of the seven species of sea turtles: green (Chelonia Mydas), hawksbill (Eretmochelys Imbricata), loggerhead (Caretta Caretta), olive ridley (Lepidochelys Olivacea), and leatherback (Dermochelys Coriacea).

Green and hawksbill sea turtles are the most commonly sighted sea turtles, known for nesting nationwide.

SEA TURTLES ARE WHAT THEY EAT!

Green sea turtles are unique among sea turtles. During the first few years of their lives, they are omnivorous, but when they reach the adult phase, they become primarily herbivores, eating mostly seagrass and algae. This diet is what gives their cartilage and fat – surprisingly not their shells – a greenish colour, which is where their name comes from.

SEA TURTLES SPEND ALL THEIR LIVES IN THE WATER

However, female sea turtles will come to the land to lay eggs. The group of eggs is called a clutch. They usually lay between 60 to 120 eggs per nest and will nest multiple times, each about two weeks apart, over several months. It takes roughly 2 months for the eggs to hatch and as soon as they hatch, the hatchlings dig out of their nest. This process generally takes a few days. Once they emerge, the tiny turtles hurry to the sea and make their way offshore into the open ocean. Baby sea turtles face many threats, but those that survive to become adults will live for decades.

SAND TEMPERATURE MATTERS

The gender of sea turtles, like that of many other turtles, is determined by the temperature in the nest. Cooler incubation temperatures produce male hatchlings, and warmer incubation temperatures produce female hatchlings. Temperatures that fluctuate between the two extremes will produce a mix of male and female hatchlings.

SEA TURTLES DON'T RETRACT INTO THEIR SHELLS

Unlike other turtles, sea turtles cannot retract their flippers and head into their shells. Their streamlined shells and large paddle-shaped flippers make them very agile and graceful swimmers. In the water, their rear flippers are used as rudders for steering.

REMEMBER!

Upon spotting these fascinating creatures, it's very important to keep in mind that they are endangered, and we need to be respectful and responsible. Here's what you should do:

- Move slowly in the water with minimal splashing and refrain from talking where possible (especially when diving!), although you may feel like shouting for joy at seeing a turtle, you don't want to scare it away.
- Leave a clear path for the turtle to get to the surface for their next breath. Never swim directly above the turtle.
- Keep your distance and approach calmly from the side. Your encounter will be much longer if the turtle is not frightened.
- Never chase or attempt to touch turtles.

CITIZEN SCIENTIST PROGRAMME IN COLLABORATION WITH THE OLIVE RIDLEY PROJECT

DID YOU KNOW, THAT THE PATTERNS OF SCALES ON A TURTLE'S FACE ARE AS UNIQUE AS FINGERPRINTS ARE TO HUMANS?

Photo-ID is a non-invasive technique used to identify individual turtles in a population and track them over time. It allows scientists to study the population structure, distribution, habitat use, and migration patterns of all sea turtle species.

At Naladhu Private Island Maldives, we collaborate with the Olive Ridley Project (ORP) through a photo-ID programme. Every time we go snorkelling or diving, we collect the photo ID of sea turtles and send it to ORP for identification.

Guests are also welcomed to help and become citizen scientists. To contribute to our ID programme, we need the following images: Left and right profile, top view. The pictures can be sent to omigliaccio@anantara.com.

After the ID process is completed, a special code and a nickname of your choice will be assigned to the sea turtle, and if there is any other sighting of that specific turtle, you be notified by email.

Our kids program is built around the young adventurers and features a daily program of activities including sports, arts and crafts, cooking classes, and more. The experience is based out of Dhoni Kids Club, an exciting indoor-outdoor playspace with a climbing wall, a treehouse, and two Dhoni boats packed with fun.
